Surprise VIP Visitor to JIMNI. Jim Schorr and John Beck welcomed former First Lady Ann Scott of Florida to Jimni during her visit to Culpeper on Tuesday! We were honored that she purchased one of our award-winning wooden, live-edge bowls. Her love of beauty and one-of-a-kind art is something she was known for when she restored the Governor's Mansion during her eight-year tenure from 2010-2018 in Tallahassee, FL.

Dogwood Village Resident Glynn Coleman Receives Alcova Hometown Hero Award. Glynn Coleman was raised in Gibson County, TN and enlisted in the Air Force at the age of 17. Glynn spent time in various parts of the county before going to Paris, France at the end of WWII where he stayed for nine months. After the war was over, Glynn returned to the states and earned a bachelor's degree in Industrial Arts from Mary State College in Kentucky. After graduation he landed a job with Orange County High School, teaching Industrial Arts. Glynn met Betty Dofflemeyer, a lifelong resident of Orange County who worked as a secretary for a lawyer based out of Richmond. Later the couple married and had one son, David. After 5 years of teaching at the high school, Glynn left teaching and began working for Virginia Metal Products for the following 13 years. The couple has been married for nearly 70 years and have enjoyed camping and spending time with family and friends. They are members of Orange Baptist Church and reside at Dogwood Village Senior Living. The Hometown Hero award was given to Mr. Coleman based on his service to his country and community. Pictured is Glynn and Betty Coleman along with Patty Talley, Director of Customer and Community Relations of Dogwood Village as he receives his award and a $500 check provided by Alcova Mortgage

Broadband. Most recently over the past 12 years, Ed was employed by a local Verizon Wireless authorized retailer here in Culpeper. Since it's beginning in 2004, Virginia Broadband is a locally owned and operated 100% fiber-fed wireless internet service provider.

nity is one of eXp's 9 core values and why eXp commits one day a year for its agents and staff to give back through the "I Heart eXp Community Day," which will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 6. This date is significant, because eXp launched on that date years ago. This year the event will be at the Wilderness Run Vineyards/1781 Brewery on Old Plank Rd in Spotsylvania Courthouse, VA on Oct 6th, from 4 to 7. A $25.00 donation (with drink tickets) will benefit 3 local charities. Our agents love giving back to the community!

Monika Christian is excited to announce the opening of Dunwright Insurance Agency in downtown Culpeper, specializing in commercial insurance. Monika started this agency after seeing too many policies with inadequate coverage or, in some cases, utterly wrong coverage! She is driven to ensure every business, fleet, or entrepreneur has their insurance Dunwright! The office is conveniently located on Davis Street, above the Pier. Stay tuned for information about a ribbon-cutting to celebrate the opening of Dunwright Insurance Agency. Contact information: 540-485-4517 or <https://bit.ly/Dunwright>

Beer Hound Brewery will celebrate its customers on Sunday, October 3, as part of its 7th anniversary. Anyone wearing a Beer Hound Brewery shirt will get a special thank you.
